

which placed Mr. Grabfelder among the National Jewish leaders of the country. Since the opening of this institution Mr. Grabfelder has been untiring in his efforts in its behalf and has visited it almost each year, not only while living in Louisville, but when he moved to Philadelphia and at Atlantic City, where he has resided for the past ten years.

Mr. Grabfelder during the years he stood at the head of the hospital, since its formation as a National institution, in July, 1899, has given large sums to assist in increasing its usefulness. His crowning gift was the beautiful Medical and Administration Building erected in November, 1914. As is natural of a man of Mr. Grabfelder's wealth and attitude towards life, he was identified with and actively interested in all other philanthropies of a wide nature. One of his favorite ways of satisfying his desire to be helpful to humanity was by assisting talented young people without means to an education and fitting them for useful positions in the world. There are many such who stood about the bier of Mr. Grabfelder, many who sent a loving thought of gratitude to the benefactor to whom they owed high school and college education and the preparation of their profession.

The funeral services were held in New York Tuesday. Interment was at Salem Field, Brooklyn, Rabbi Enelow formerly of Louisville, now of Temple Emanuel, New York, officiated. The Hospital was represented at the funeral by Herman August, a vice-president, Ben Altheimer, the treasurer, Mrs. Rebecca Kohut, a member of the Board, Charles H. Studen, president of the New York Chapter of the Hospital, and Mrs. I. M. Appel, its New York representative. The hospital sent a floral offering as its gift to its head, and the patients sent a telegram of condolence and sympathy to the bereaved widow of their friend and benefactor.

Memorial services will be held at Temple Emanuel, of which Mr. Grabfelder was a member, on Friday evening, April 30. The speakers of the evening will be Mrs. S. Pisko, secretary of the Hospital, Dr. Robert Levy, president of the Medical Board of the Hospital; Dr. Philip Hillkowitz, president of the Jewish Consumptives Relief Society, and Dr. Wm. S. Friedman, chairman of the local Board of Managers.

PALESTINE, TEXAS.

The friends of Mrs. Sam Lucas will regret deeply to hear of the death in Houston of her brother, Mr. A. Grumbach. Though Mr. Grumbach had been in ill health his passing away was very unexpected, and a greater shock on account of Mrs. Grumbach visiting her daughter here, and both were on their way to Houston when the sad news came. Mr. Grumbach was born and reared in Houston and was known and loved by many and though a very young man, he held a very responsible position and possessed many sterling qualities and was indeed a wonderful son of his aged mother, who has the heartfelt sympathy of all who know her.

Mrs. Ben Landau will spend a few weeks in Dallas the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Julius Pearlstone.

Joe and Mose Chotiner have returned from Rochester, Minn., and Chicago, where they spent several weeks in the interest of the latter's health, which is much improved.

Mrs. Hyman Pearlstone has returned from Dallas where she visited a sister, Mrs. Ed Lucas, and other relatives.

Mrs. Leo Davidson is visiting at the home of Isadore Davidson in Fort Worth.

Barney Pearlstone is spending the week-end in Dallas the guest of his son, Julius Pearlstone.

After spending several weeks with their mother, Mrs. Leo Davidson, Messdames Seelig and Ritterman, returned to their home in New York.

The Jewish Daily News of New York says: "It is in place to ask for what purpose the Council of Jewish Women needs $150,000 for which the organization is appealing. Recently, statements emanating from the C. J. W., have appeared in the Jewish and general press which would make American Jewry believe that all immigrant aid work in this country was carried on by the Council. This is not exactly correct—to put it mildly. We recall that one year ago the Council issued a statement that it had taken care of more Jewish immigrant girls than actually arrived in that particular year. The Council no doubt does some good work, but when it appeals for funds to carry on immigrant aid work and exaggerates its efforts in that direction, it is not gaining the confidence of the community. Some times even the publicity director should adhere to the truth."

What is the answer of the Council?
